EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE SENTINEL.

MADISON, Feb. 13.

Among the various items of local news which the Sentinel brings us this morning is the proposed organization of sundry "purely democratic" office seekers and others for the benefit of the city in general and themselves in particular. The strength of such a union would be very much that of a rope of sand, and the harmony of its component parts that of a dozen or more Kilkenny cats tied together in a bag. The various members of the proposed Union Safety Committee have so often betrayed each other that under their new organization, they can seize with avidity the capital opportunities offered by it to deal out even-handed justice.

The lobby is becoming filled up again with members, many of them probably drawn hither by the disinterested wish of serving the people in the various capacities of Commissioners of Public Works, and State Prison, Register and Receiver of Land Office, &c. They are a highly distinguished and very sensible looking body of men, and it is a melancholy anticipation that among them any should be disappointed. But I suppose it must be so. There will be no election yet awhile, however, and they can live on hope for some time longer.

The bill introduced in Senate by Mr. Palmer, contemplating a loan of $10,000 from the School Fund to the Fox River Improvement, I am glad to learn, meets with no favor from him, tho' such might be inferred to be the case from his having introduced it. He moved its reference to the committee on School lands &c., for the purpose of investigation, and has not, by those investigations, been led to regard it with any increase of favor.—It is hardly probable that the bill will reach the House.

The impartiality of the Senate was sorely tried yesterday afternoon on a resolution by Mr. Pinckney to purchase 2000 copies of the Express, containing the Regents Report. If the word "Express" had been "Argus," there is no doubt that the resolution would have passed at once; but as it was, there was a call of the Senate, and then a motion to dispense with proceedings under the call, and then a reconsideration of the vote, and then an adjournment was carried. Still again, as things "turn up," we are reminded that this is a curious world! This morning the Senate cut down the number to 1000 and passed it.

Dr. Wood introduced a resolution directing an inquiry into the whereabouts of the books missing from the Library, and the House adopted it.—I believe the committee had the matter already under consideration, and that it will not be neglected. By the way, the Speaker stated that, for a series of years, while an officer of the State of Vermont, he forwarded volumes of the laws, journals, &c. to the Governor of this State, among others, with copies of the resolutions under which they were directed to be sent. These volumes have all been taken away!

Mr. Cain has introduced a very stringent mechanic's lien law. It was ordered printed this morning; I will send a copy when it appears.

The committee on claims reported against a large batch of bills, and the majority of them, being for payment of clerks employed in the State offices, were referred to the Judiciary committee. They were certainly employed without authority of law, or rather, more were employed than the law contemplated; but if the services were performed, and were absolutely necessary, those who performed them will have to be paid.

The claim of Mr. Sholes for the balance of his bill for printing the Statutes, passed the House by a vote of 39 to 13. It amounts to about $3300.

The memorial for a grant of land to the Milwaukee and Mississippi R. R. Co. coming up this morning, it was referred with all other applications of the kind, to the committee on incorporations. There is some reason for the suggestion that they inquire whether or not all the U. S. lands in the State have not been asked for already.

The Fox River Valley railroad project is undergoing the grinding process. Among other objections raised against it considerable stress is properly given to the consideration that a charter of the kind and in the route asked would seriously embarrass negotiations under foot for building the lake shore line, chartered previously, organized and now on a fair way for speedy completion.—Various interests are at work, and more are becoming involved in the log-rolling process, and the end is uncertain. I am willing to trust the House to do justice in the premises, when they have a full understanding of the subject.

W. H. W.

Madison, Feb. 14.

I promised last evening to say something further concerning the debate in the House which occupied the afternoon. On second thought, perhaps it is best to dismiss the subject with more brevity than I intended, for there is not much good to be said of the discussion. There were several good speeches on both sides, but when Col. Botkin—

> "That winter lion who in age forgets
> Aged contusions and all brush of time,

rushes into the fray, with "glowring eyes and hair wide-streaming to the blast," he grew quite personal in his remarks relative to the opponents of the bill, and in the course thereof, (while for the sake of blunting the edge of the sarcasm, he included himself) hazarded the remark that in a show of jackasses by one of the Agricultural Societies, the opponents of the bill would draw premiums. Messrs. Barber and Richardson treated the remark as it deserved; but "the smallest worm will turn when trodden upon," and so Mr. McKee, who—

> Ripe for exploits and mighty enterprises"—

Refused to be comforted, and sated his young ire by calling the Colonel a "d——d vagabond" (these were the precise words.) The shameful language was regarded by the House as it deserved, and indeed the unpleasant personalities of the whole debate caused a good deal of ill feeling. The following are the ayes and noes on the passage of the bill—whigs in italics—free soilers in small caps—those who voted in the affirmative were

Those who voted in the negative were

The bill can yet be reconsidered. There is no opposition to it, except on the score of economy, I believe, and those who vote against it may do so because the Treasury is about empty, and many heavy expenditures are to be provided for. The motion to reconsider was this morning made the special order for Monday 23d, at 10 A. M.

The select Committee on Banks, through Mr. Lawrence, their Chairman, introduced a General Banking Law, of which the following is a brief abstract—it contains 37 sections.—

Sec. 1 provides for the election every 3 years of a Bank Comptroller by the Legislature, whose compensation, including rent, clerk hire, &c., shall be $2000.

Sec. 4 provides that Comptroller shall cause the notes to be engraved, registered, signed, and countersigned.

Sec. 5, Any person or persons who shall assign or transfer in trust to the State Treasurer, U. S. or State stock—to be valued at a rate to be governed by the average rate at which they shall have sold in New York for the previous six months—may receive from the Comptroller an equal amount of circulating notes—said stocks to be equal to 6 per cent stocks, and not to be received above their par value or current value in N. Y., city at the time of the application.

Sec. 6 & 7. Lists of notes and securities to be kept by the Comptroller—securities to be in charge of State Treasurer—and may be redelivered to the Comptroller for sale under certain contingencies.

Sec. 8. Comptroller may give powers of attorney to banks or bankers to receive the interest on the stocks deposited by them, to be revoked when there is a failure to redeem their notes—and may, on application change the deposited securities for others, the notes always to be secured in full.

Sec. 9. Bills to be stamped "Secured by pledge of public stocks.

Sec. 10. Plates and dies to be kept by the Comptroller, and expenses incurred in their purchase and use to be paid by the association or person applying for notes.

Sec. 11. Salary of Comptroller to be assessed, pro rata of the circulating notes, upon the banks or bankers.

Sec. 12. Persons or associations complying with this act may issue notes, payable on demand at their place of business within this state.

Sec. 13. Persons may associate in establishing offices of discount, deposit, and circulation under this act the aggregate of the capital stock of each to be within certain limits.

Sec. 14. They shall certify, their name, place of business, amount of capital stock and number of shares, names and places of residence of shareholders and number of shares of each, and period of commencing and terminating business. Said certificate to be recorded in the registers office of the county, and copies filed with the State Treasurer and Comptroller, and thereupon become incorporated.

Sec. 15. Copies of this certificate by the Register or Comptroller, to be used as evidence in courts of justice.

Sec. 17. Shares to be deemed personal property transferable on the books of the association.—No change to be made in the articles of association to the prejudice of existing creditors. Taxes to be levied upon the association and not upon the individual shareholders—property to be assessed where located.

Sec. 18. If the makers of circulating notes shall fail to redeem them, the notes shall be protested for non-payment, unless the officers of the bank shall make admission of the fact. Bank Comptroller, on receipt of such protest or admission, shall notify the bank to pay the notes; in case of refusal or neglect for 20 days, unless good reason is given, shall give public notice in newspapers in the county when the bank is located or at the seat of government, that the notes will be redeemed out of the trust fund; and the comptroller shall apply the trust funds to the purpose.

Sec. 19. Comptroller shall sell the stocks, in such cases at public auction—the State to be in no wise liable beyond the application of the securities deposited.

Sec. 20. If the current market value of the stocks shall for 90 days be less than the nominal value, the comptroller shall notify the bank of the depreciation, and the Banks shall within 90 days deposit additional stocks equal to the difference.—If they fail to do so, they shall forfeit their powers and privileges, and the comptroller shall apply to the Circuit Court to have receivers appointed, who shall perform the duties pre-cribed by Sec. 9, Chap. 54, Title 12, R. S.

Sec. 21. Comptroller not to sign bills above value of stock deposited, under penalty of fine of not less than $5000, or imprisonment in State Prison not less than 5 years, or both.

Sec. 22. Associations may provide for increase of capital to a certain limit.

Sec. 23. Contracts and notes to be signed by the officers of the association, and suits to be brought in name of the said association.

Sec. 24. Such association may hold and convey real estate for their business accommodation—such as shall be mortgaged for loans or money due—such as shall be conveyed in satisfaction of debts previously contracted in the course of dealing—and such as they may acquire by execution, and for no other purpose except those named.

Sec. 25. Twelve per cent interest for damages to be paid on notes, the payment of which is demanded and refused.

Sec. 26. List of shareholders to be filed semi-annually with the County Register and Bank Comptroller.

Sec. 27. Notes not to be put in circulation payable at any place except where the business of the bank is carried on—said notes to be payable on demand without interest.

Sec. 28. If the Comptroller shall at any time deem the securities insufficient to redeem the circulation of any bank, he may receive the dividends on the same, and loan them on such terms as he may deem expedient.

Sec. 29. Fees for protesting notes to be paid by the person for whom they are performed, the bank to be liable for the same, but none of the securities to be applied for that purpose.

Sec. 30. 31. Provides for manner of relinquishing business.

Sec. 32. Mutilated notes may be returned to the comptroller and exchanged.

Sec. 33. No greater interest to be received by banks that is allowed by law in this state.

Sec. 34. Shall receive their own notes in payment of all demands.

Sec. 35. Provisions of this act to controll all persons conducting business under it.

Sec. 36. At the next general election in November, the question of approval of this act to be submitted to the public, and a majority of all votes cast on the subject shall decide.

Sec. 37. Form of ballots at said election.

I think that the readers of the Sentinel will agree with me in giving credit to the Committee having this important subject in charge, consisting of Messrs. Lawrence, Hackett, Moore, Botkin, and Patch, for the skill which they have displayed in drawing up the above bill, in guarding the interests of bill-holders, at the same time that they hold out liberal inducements to capitalists to enter upon the business of banking within the State. The Chairman, Mr. Lawrence deserves especial commendation for the perseverance with which he has kept the Committee at work as well as for his own personal labors in the matter. Mr. Moore has been absent much of the time on business assigned him by the Assembly, but he concurs in reporting the bill, and, indeed, it is a unanimous report. The bill is very much condensed, and yet is such as must, in my judgment, be deemed sufficient and just, and meet the views of the Legislature and the people.

"Good bishop Valentines day, has come, attended with thousands of little Loves, and the air is brushed with the din of rustling wings"—so said mine ancient Elia——and it becometh all faithful bachelors to eat and run to cover their defenceless heads.

Now for a New Hotel.

The destruction of Young's new brick block by fire has again left vacant the best lots in our City for the erection of a first class Hotel. They have a front of 240 feet on Mason-st. and 120 on Wisconsin; are eligibly located, with reference to business and travel; and offer a most desirable site for a large public edifice. A spacious, well constructed and well-managed Hotel, put up on this site, would pay better than any other description of buildings that could be erected there. Such a Hotel is one of the great wants of our City. The accommodations which Milwaukee now offers to travellers and strangers are not up to the times, and full short of public expectation and the public demand. Our City is a serious loser, in consequence, and the deficiency should be supplied without delay. A more favorable opportunity than the present, for building such a Hotel, will not soon recur. A better site for the purpose cannot be found in our City. Will not our property holders, then, take council together, as speedily as may be, and either by a joint stock, or individual enterprise, secure the erection of a First-Class Hotel on the lots lately occupied by Young's Block.

MILWAUKEE MUSICAL SOCIETY.—As may be seen from the details of the disastrous fire of Sunday night, the Milwaukee Musical Society sustained a very heavy, and in some respects an irreparable loss. An aggregate of $2000 worth of Music and Musical instruments was consumed by the devouring flames. This is indeed a serious pull back for the Society, which has been some eighteen months accumulating the little property thus swept away at a breath. We trust, however, that the public liberality will make good some of this heavy loss. Subscription lists were circulated yesterday for that purpose, and quite a large amount put down. It is proposed, in addition, to give a Benefit Concert for the Society, at Gardiner's Hall, to-morrow evening, and the Sacred Music Society have generously proffered their aid on the occasion. An excellent programme is offered and the price of tickets fixed at fifty cents. Will not all, who can, attend this Concert, or at least constitute their mite to the fund?

☞ Besides Nightingales, Thrushes and Swans, says the Boston Post, another bird has appeared in the musical groves of Philadelphia. "Mr. Quayle" is giving Concerts at the Chinese Museum. He has an "excellent bill."

AUCTION SALE.—Mr. WALL sells at his Auction Store, this morning, a very fine Rosewood Piano, and a beautiful miniature ship, full-rigged, with other articles too numerous to mention.

"UNION AND HARMONY."—The adjourned meeting of the "democratic" leaders at Military Hall on Saturday evening last was slimly attended and not particularly harmonious. It was resolved to have a "new deal" for Delegates and Electors; and Judge BRYAN, of the Commercial, was formally voted out of office. We doubt whether the Judge will "give it up so," for all that. It was determined, also, to organize a "Democratic Association," to which none but the "Simon Pures" should be admitted. Accordingly, in selecting officers for this meeting, Mr. A. GRELICH, a very respectable citizen, was rejected for Vice President, for the crime of having been a "bolter," and Mr. R. N. MESSENGER suffered the like fate for being a Temperance man. A resolution was then offered by Mr. SCHOEFFLER of the Banner, committing the "democracy" against the Maine Liquor Law, which was carried with a rush. We have a notion, that between these two tests, the regular "democracy" will be cut down to a very select and easily managed party. Perhaps it was that, and not office, that the getters-up of the movement were after. If so, we must be allowed to congratulate them upon their signal success.

UNIVERSITY INSTITUTE.—We are glad to learn, from the Trustees of the University Institute, that tho' burnt out at the fire of Sunday night and losing some $250 worth of books and furniture, they are by no means disheartened, but already looking out for another location. The success of the Institute, thus far, has been most encouraging; as at the time of the fire there were one hundred and one pupils in attendance. It has already, indeed, become indispensable to our city. The Trustees are in treaty for another building and hope, in a day or two, to announce that the Institute is again ready for the reception of scholars. Meantime they hope that the flock already gathered will not disperse, but await the opening of the new School.

THE QUO WARRANTO.—We are glad to see our views of the quo warranto sustained by the Kenosha Telegraph, an able and independent journal. We copy a portion of the Telegraph's article, at the risk of exposing our contemporary to be denounced as another "organ of the Jenny Lind Club" by the Free Democrat, or as a tool of Mr. MITCHELL'S by the Madison Argus:

> The reason assigned for this present onslaught is that no persons can afford to come into the State and do a responsible and safe banking business, with dollar of capital for dollar of issue, while other individuals can issue as much paper as they please with no capital at all in vault. There is a question, however, whether at the present time this move was advisable—whether in consideration of the awful tightness of the money market and the almost utter impossibility of getting hold of the circulating medium of any kind, it was best to make a panic with regard to the only paper which is afloat, when it is known that the issues of G. Smith & Co., have been promptly redeemed at every "run" and have survived in honor any panic which has been created. It is said that unless they are shut up no one will give security for a banking basis. Would it not be good plan to wait and see whether a banking bill is passed?—And then would it not be the part of wisdom, to wait and see if they do not come under the requirements of the law. If they do, would it not be most politic to let our own citizens have the first chance of engaging in the business if it is at all profitable.
> We do not object to bringing all alike under the requirements of just laws—but it appears to us it would have been reasonable to have waited for the contemplated law and then have said: obey it, or shut up shop.

MASONIC.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Wisconsin completed the labors of the Annual communication for the year A. L. 5852, at Madison, on Thursday the 12th inst. The officers elected for the ensuing year are as follows:

HUDSON RIVER RAILROAD.—The Hudson River Railroad earned in January $107,000—making the earnings since the opening of the road for through travel, as follows:

Oct.	$69,000 Dec.	$112,000
Nov.	60,000 Jan.	107,000
		319,000
Estimate for February and March		225,000
The whole semi-annual earnings will be		$573,000

Last year, in an incomplete shape, the gross earnings were $405,000 for twelve months, Oct. 1, '50, to Sept. 30, '51.

DODGING THE LIQUOR LAW.—The Boston Traveller gives the following among other expedients successfully resorted to, in Maine, to evade the prohibitory Liquor Law, recently enacted in that State, and so earnestly commended to the imitation of Wisconsin:

> "We have before us a wrapper which we are assured was taken from a square, medicine-shaped quart bottle of "Scheidam & Schnapp's" best, which somehow found its way into Maine. The label reads thus: "Wolfe's Aromatic Scheidam Schnapps, a superlative tonic, diuretic, anti-dyspeptic and invigorating cordial." Then follows a list of the medicinal properties of the beverage, with directions for taking it, and the address of the proprietor, in fac-simile, "Waldopho Wolfe, 22 Beaver Street, New York."

A CENTENARIAN.—Mr. JNO. BATTIN, of New York, entered upon the second century of his life on Monday of last week. He was 100 years old on that day, and is in fair health. The N. Y. Commercial Advertiser says:—

> For sixty years Mr. B. has taken his usual walk around the Battery, in Winter; as well as in summer, before breakfast. He attributes his longevity and continued health to his frugal living and avoidance of the luxuries and the indulgences so much in vogue at the present day. We apprehend that Mr. Battin is the "oldest inhabitant" of the Empire city.

GOVERNOR FAIRWELL'S VETO.—We publish in full, this morning, the Governor's Veto of the Rock River Valley Rail Road, indefinite extension bill. We think the reasons adduced by the Governor, for returning the bill to the Senate, good and sufficient and do not doubt that they will be so regarded by the people and the Legislature. The bill, as it stands, cannot be passed over the Veto.

☞ The Madison Argus can find no better answer to our remarks upon the Quo Warranto then coarse personal abuse and the charge that the Sentinel is the "organ," "hireling" &c., of the Wisconsin Marine and Fire Insurance Company. We have too much respect for ourselves and too little for our assailant, to pay the charge the compliment of a contradiction.

THE BANK BILL.—Our associate at Madison sends us a synopsis of the General Banking Law reported to the Assembly by the Select Committee having charge of the matter. We have only space this morning to invite the attention of our readers to the leading provisions of the proposed bill.

UPPER LAKE BOATS.—The steamer America is advertised to run between Buffalo and the ports on this Lake, during the coming season of navigation. This makes six boats now "up" for the Upper Lake Line.

For the Sentinel.

MADISON, Feb. 13.

Messrs. Editors:

GENTLEMEN:—I perceive that your Madison correspondent has led you into an error in relation to my position, on the proposition to loan a portion of the School fund to the Fox and Wisconsin River Improvement. Your correspondent was undoubtedly led into the same error himself, from the fact that I had introduced the bill into the Senate. But had he noted carefully my subsequent movements, in relation to the bill, he could hardly have drawn the inference he has from this fact. It will be seen by the journals of the Senate, that before any action was had upon the bill, other than that incident to its introduction, I moved its reference to the Committee on Education, School and University Lands—a committee that is considered the peculiar guardian of the school fund, and of the common school interests of the State. This Committee, I knew, possessed all the information necessary to enlighten the Senate upon the subject, and I had no fear that they would recommend its passage, unless the interest of the school fund would be promoted by it. I subsequently saw the members of the Committee, and from the information elicited, was satisfied the bill ought not to pass, and so advised them. That committee, if it report the bill back at all, will undoubtedly report against its passage which I doubt not will be the sense of the Senate.

You will please make this correction and oblige,

Very truly, yours &c,

A. PALMER.

SOUTHERN RAIL ROAD—PASSENGERS, &c.—Since the R. R. Co., have commenced giving tickets through to Chicago, travel on the Road has greatly increased. Over a hundred passengers came over the Road yesterday. Our Hotels were filled.—Travel by Stage Coach is also very great this winter. Several loads left in extra last night, besides several loads in livery conveyances. We have never known a season of more travel.—Toledo Blade 10th inst.

The Chicago papers of Saturday concur in the statement that the Southern Michigan Rail Road will be completed to that city during the present week.

PRESIDENTIAL PROSPECTS.—The St. Louis Republican publishes a Washington letter, of February 1st, which contains the following shrewd "guess" at the probabilities of the coming Presidential contest:

> I think Cass or Butler will be started by the "untorrified," faced by Scott, for the Whigs; and lowering as seem the prospects of Whiggery at present, I should not be surprised if "Old Chippewa," backed by his laurel battles, swept into office, on a whirlwind of popular enthusiasm, which will obliterate the very memory of the triumphs of "Tippecanoe" and old "Rough and Ready."

TEMPERANCE LECTURES.—Mr. D. JOHNSTON, Principal of the First Ward Public School, an educated and intelligent man, proposes to give a series of Temperance Lectures, illustrated by a Magic Lantern, at the Free Congregational Church on Main-st. His charges for admission are so moderate, and his Lectures so certain to be worthy hearing, that we doubt not he will find plenty of auditors, large and little.

RELIEF FOR THE SUFFERERS BY THE FIRE.—The Jobbers employed upon Youngs Block lost their all by the sudden destruction of the building, and are rendered destitute by the calamity. Some of them have families dependent upon them for support. A subscription paper for their relief is circulating about our city which we hope to see liberally signed.

☞ Mr. Paine, of gas notoriety, is a lineal descendant, on the mother's side, of the man who set the river on fire.—Ex.

Next of Kin, probably.

AN OMISSION SUPPLIED.—In our hurried account of the fire, in yesterday morning's Extra, we accorded all the credit of saving Number One's house to the "Rough and Ready" boys. They deserved a full share of this praise, but so did Oregon Company No. 3, who were stationed at the river and supplied No. 4 with the water which the latter used so judiciously.

OUR LAKE NAVIGATION.—We learn from Capt. CLEMENT, who has been in our city for several days past, that the Pacific is ready for service and will be along here sometime between this and the first of the month, depending upon the weather and the prospects of business.

THE MAYFLOWER ALL RIGHT.—The Cleveland papers report that the Mayflower is "righted up," and her hull proves, upon examination, to be uninjured. She will be afloat and in prime order again, by the 1st of April.

MAKING UP ARREARAGES.—By the Eastern Mail, last evening, we received New York papers of Tuesday last, through in six days. That will do, Messrs. Mail Contractors, very well indeed, and we score one in your favor accordingly.

CHICAGO, MILWAUKEE AND GREEN BAY RAILROAD.—H. W. Blodgett, R. D. Dodge, and D. O. Dickinson, Esqrs., of Waukegan, Corporators of the Chicago, Milwaukee and Green Bay Railroad Company, arrived in our city to-day to open books for subscriptions to stock in the road. Mr. Blodget informs us that the citizens of Waukegan subscribed for 700 shares ($70,000) the first day the books were opened in that place. This, with the sum ($230,000) previously subscribed in Milwaukee, makes the total subscriptions $320,000. In addition to this, it is thought that Racine and Southport will subscribe at least $200,000. While we are free to confess that this improvement will not add to the trade of our city to as great an extent as the Roads connecting us with the Mississippi, nevertheless it will be highly beneficial. To capitalists who desire to invest their means in a dividend paying work, we know of no railroad which will probably do better for them than the Chicago, Milwaukee and Green Bay.—Chicago Tribune.

Destructive Conflagration!

Young's New Block in Ashes!!

$330,000 Loss!!!

MILWAUKEE, Sunday Evening, } February 15, 10 P. M. }

The most disastrous fire, which has visited us for many months, occurred this evening. About half-past 5 o'clock fire was discovered in the northern wing of Young's new and elegant brick block, on the corner of Main and Wisconsin Streets.—The alarm was speedily given, but long before any water could be got upon the building, the flames spreading with the speed of the wind, had complete possession of the entire upper stories, and threatened the inevitable destruction of the whole block.

The huge ascending columns of thick black smoke, interlaced with fiery tongues of flame; the rapid tolling of all the fire and church bells in the City; the shouts of the firemen and citizens, hurrying to the conflagration—soon attracted an immense concourse to the spot. All attempts, however, to save the block were utterly unavailing, and the efforts of the Fire Department and others were all directed to the removal of goods and furniture from the burning buildings, and the preservation of those adjoining from the threatening flames.

These were so far successful that most of the goods in the basement stores of Young's Block were got out, and the adjoining buildings escaped without injury with two exceptions. These were, the dwelling of Mr. LUCAS SEAVER, on the North, and the Engine House of No. 1 on the East of Young's Block. The falling walls broke though the roofs of both these buildings but they escaped comparatively unscathed from fire. Number One's house was saved by the friendly aid of No. 4; No. 1 herself being stationed at the river supplying No. 5.

For an hour and upwards the flames raged and roared with great fury, lighting up the whole city and the overhanging clouds with the glare of a great conflagration. Then, as floor after floor burnt through, and the joists began to fall, the walls toppled over, and by 7 o'clock the whole structure was a pile of ruins.

The loss to the enterprizing owner, our respected fellow citizen, WILLIAM P. YOUNG, was a disastrous one. The block had already cost him some $23,000, and the upper portion, with the exception of the magnificent Musical Hall, unrivaled in the West, was still unfinished. He had not a dollar of insurance on this large expenditure. Nor is his the only, tho' the heaviest loss.—Mr. FRENCH, the master carpenter, and Mr. SYTER, the mason, are also sufferers.

The University Institute, which occupied rooms on the first floor, lost a large quantity of School books and furniture. The Young Men's Association also lost a portion of their library, how much we could not learn.

Another peculiarly unfortunate, because almost irreparable loss, was that sustained by the Milwaukee Musical Society. They had rehearsed, in the Grand Hall, on Saturday night, preparatory to the Festival announced for this evening, and had left all their fine instruments, Violins, Violoncellos, Kettle Drums, Horns and Music, in the room. So rapid was the spread of the flames that it was impossible to save them, and with one or two exceptions, they were all destroyed.

Among the number were Violins belonging to individual members of the Society, Dr. FESSEL and others, valued at $500 and upwards; and the total loss on these alone is three or four thousand dollars, and no insurance.

It is seldom indeed that so disastrous a fire occurs. Not far from thirty thousand dollars worth of property, of various sorts, was destroyed, and not a dollar of it insured. We have not been able to obtain an accurate list of the losses for our Extra, but will give them in our regular edition.

After the fire was subdued, refreshments were bountifully furnished to Number One's Company by Mr. GEO. D. DOUSMAN (whose premises had a narrow escape) and to the other Companies at KELLOGG'S, BIDWELL'S and the City Hotel, by order of the Chief Engineer.

ADDITIONAL PARTICULARS.

In our extra of yesterday, published above, we gain the main incidents of the destructive conflagration of Sunday night. It is the general belief that the fire was set by some incendiary, as within five minutes after its first discovery, the flames were seen bursting forth from both wings, as well as in the main building. The progress of the fire was appallingly rapid, and its fury defied all efforts to save any portion of the burning building. The two large Halls, and the corridor leading from one to the other were partly lathed, and full of lumber, most of it very dry and highly combustible. This and the numerous openings in the upper stories will account in part for the rapid advance of the flames.

Mr. YOUNG'S loss is estimated as high as $20,000 and, as we stated yesterday, he had not a dollar of insurance. The public sympathize deeply in the misfortune which has befallen him. A statement annexed, furnished us by Mr. FRENCH, shows the losses sustained by himself and those employed with him upon the buildings. A like statement is appended from the Secretary of the Milwaukee Musical Society, Mr. GEORGE PAPENDIEK, himself the loser of a remarkably fine Violin which no money can replace.

The Young Men's Association, we are glad to learn, saved all their Library and sustained no other loss than that of a portion of their fixtures. The University Institute lost about $250 in furniture. No insurance.

The occupants of the several stores on the Wisconsin street front, suffered no other damage than that incident to a very hasty removal of their goods. The Engine House of Number One was damaged by the falling walls to the amount of some $300. The furniture was removed in season. No insurance.

Mr. SEAVER'S dwelling, next north of Young's Block, was injured by the falling walls to the amount of $400. His furniture, &c. was all got out, tho' somewhat damaged by hurried moving. He is fully insured in the Milwaukee Mutual, on the furniture, and in the Howard Company, N. Y., on the house.

The furniture was also removed from the adjoining houses, Dr. WHITNEY'S and Mr. WOONNUFF'S, and the damage resulting is covered by insurance.

The Baptist Church, on the corner of Wisconsin and Milwaukee streets; the residence of Mr. ALDRICH and other buildings in the vicinity, took fire from the descending shower of sparks, but timely aid prevented any serious mischief.

We learn from Mr. YOUNG that he is willing to dispose of the lots, so recently covered by his elegant block, for a Hotel; but if this is not determined upon speedily, he will put up another block of buildings there himself!

Vote of the Valley R. R. Bill.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, } Madison, February 13, 1852. }

To the Senate and Assembly:

The bill entitled "an act to amend the charter of the Rock River Valley Union Rail Road Company," I herewith respectfully return to the Senate, whence the same originated, with my objections to its becoming a law.

The Constitution of this State, Section 18, Article 4th, provides that "no private or local bill which may be passed by the Legislature shall embrace more than one subject and that subject shall be expressed in its title."

In my opinion this bill embraces more than one subject.

In the first place, it provides for an amendment of the present charter of the company, and that with respect only to the Rail Road or Rail Roads between certain points and terminations named and fixed in said charter by former enactments of the Legislature. That is one subject, distinct from any other, the scope and meaning of which may be ascertained by reference to the charter to which the bill purports to be amendatory.

In the 23d section of this bill, it is provided that "said company shall have power to extend their road from its point of intersection of the Wisconsin river to the village of La Crosse, in the Co. of La Crosse, and from thence to the Willow river and St. Croix falls, in St. Croix Co; also from said point of intersection to the village of Beaver Dam, in Dodge Co."

This section it will be perceived, confers the power upon said company to construct a Rail Road or Rail Roads, between points and terminations altogether different and widely distant from the local limits of the Road fixed and mentioned in the present Charter of the company. This, in my opinion, is another and quite a different subject.

The Constitution, Section 13, article 1st, provides that "the property of no person shall be taken for public use without just compensation therefor."

The first section of this bill provides that the compensation to be paid for lands taken for the use of the Road, and for the earth, gravel, stone, and other materials necessary for its construction, taken from adjoining lands, shall be ascertained as follows:—

The Commissioners named shall proceed at the request of the company to assess the damages which which may be sustained by the several owners or claimants of the lands thro' which the Road is located.

The second section provides "that said commissioners shall in assessing the said damages deduct therefrom the benefits which shall accrue to the owners or claimants of said lands." It has been judicially decided in the Supreme Courts of different States that compensation, as used in this section of the Constitution, means the value of the property taken, paid in money, and that benefits that may accrue to the owner from any public improvement for which his lands are taken, cannot be deducted from such value. The Supreme Court of this State, at the last term, in the case of the M. & M. R. R. Co. against E., in passing upon a similar provision of the Charter of that Co., held and affirmed the same doctrine.

In the first clause of the first section of this bill is provided that "compensation" shall be made for the lands taken, &c. But afterwards, in the same section, where it pretends to prescribe the manner in which such compensation shall be ascertained and paid, the term "damages" takes the place of the word "compensation," and in the second section it allows accruing benefits to be deducted from such damages; so that in effect the bill does not provide for making any compensation whatever for the lands actually taken for said road, of 120 feet. Wherefore I am clearly of the opinion that if the bill should become a law, it would be unconstitutional and void.

In the second part of section ten, article first of the Constitution of the United States, it is provided that "no state shall pass any law imp

DAILY SENTINEL.

Temperance Meeting.

An adjourned Temperance Meeting was held in Young's Hall, on Friday evening, Feb. 13th, James H. Paine Pres. George E.H. Day, Vice Pres., and Herbert Reed, Sec.

The meeting having been called to order, the Chair, on motion, appointed J. B Vliet, E Palmer, W. W. Lake, Wm A. Prentiss, S S. Daggett, and A. Kimball, a committee on resolutions.

Dr. Maenish addressed the meeting a length explaining the evils of intemperance, the manner of manufacturing pure and adulterated liquors, &c., and showing conclusively that the Maine Law has been and could be enforced, and was the only effectual remedy for the evils arising from the liquor traffic

Mr Roesler, in reply, spoke against the Maine law,—admitted the evil effects of the use of intoxicating drinks, but attributed them partly to the adulteration practised in this country,—considered that tea and coffee should be classed with ardent spirits.

An animated discussion afterwards arose between Messrs Maenish, Roesler, Hastings, D Johnson, and others; which was listened to with interest until a late hour, by a very large audience

The committee on resolutions reported the following, which were unanimously adopted

Whereas, the existing manufacture of, and traffic in alcoholic liquors, has come to be the source of great evils in the State, leading men, for the sake of a paltry though relatively exorbitant profit, leave the legitimate sphere of industry, to engage in the unwarrantable and iniquitous business of luring their neighbors to ruin, from which the following, among other evils, flow, viz:

1st, The annual wanton destruction of a large amount of raw material, and the dissipation of the labor required for its production and manufacture.

2d, The moral corruption of great numbers of youth and weak-minded persons, who are entired to lives of dissipation, then idleness, and finally CRIME.

3d, The annual premature death of large numbers, both of tempters and victims, who strong in their self concerted combination, and in the assistance of multitudes of the ablest intellects in both ancient and modern times, gradually verge from moderate drinking to confirmed habitual drunkenness and dishonored graves.

4th, The final corruption of the State, though the passage of bad laws, and the rendering nugatory of good ones, brought about by the practical balance of power held by these public tempters, which enables them to control the election of Legislative, Executive, and Judicial offices.

And Whereas, These are no counterbalancing good effects resulting from the manufacture and traffic

And Whereas; This evil has braced itself against moral suasion, and has arrayed itself in violent and political opposition to the exercise of this moral power with regard to its victims, and has at one time entrenched itself behind the law, and at another has arrayed itself in open and successful defiance of the law.

Therefore, Resolved, That the people of the State of Wisconsin, in the exercise of then better judgment, demand that this manufacture and traffic shall be outlawed and declared a nuisance.

Resolved, That, in our opinion, this can only be effectually done by the enactment of a law similar in its provisions to that now in existence in the State of Maine.

Resolved, That the Legislature of Wisconsin, now in session, be and they are hereby respectfully requested to enact a law of this nature.

Petitions were handed in, favoring the adoption of the Maine Liquor Law, with over 2300 names attached.

Voted that the proceedings be published in the city papers.

On motion the meeting adjourned, sine die

The bill relinquishing to the State of Iowa certain lands reserved for Salt Springs, was ordered to a third reading.

The resolution of sympathy for the Irish exiles was taken up, when Mr. Shields commenced a speech in favor of an amendment he had offered He said that his amendment had been so framed as to make the application for clemency on behalf of those exiles consistent with the dignity of the United States, and at the same time offer no indignity to the government of Great Britain. He believed that the resolution as amended would effect their release. England had nothing to gain by prolonging their captivity. He thought that all hope of Ireland's nationality was forever crushed. The United States would be sustained in asking what she did, in view of the course of England towards Kossuth. Kossuth owed his liberation to the interference of England in his behalf.

Mr. Shields then, in eloquent strains, depicted the sufferings of Ireland, and her claims upon this country, and hoped Irishmen and Englishmen would combine to improve the condition of Ireland.

Mr. Seward then obtained the floor, and on his motion the further discussion of the subject was postponed.

Mr. Clemens offered a resolution calling for information in reference to contracts for carrying the mails between N. Y. and California

Senate adjourned

Depot, and at 2 o'clock there were fully 50,000 people in the streets in the windows and on the house-tops in the vicinity of the Depot, all anxiously waiting to hail him welcome, whose name and character have become as familiar as household words. All the military companies as well as the various societies with their flags and bands of music were in attendance, and such an exciting scene as our city has presented during the afternoon is seldom witnessed.

About 6 o'clock the roar of cannon announced the approach of the train, containing the great advocate of human liberty, Louis Kossuth As the cars entered the city, every voice was raised to hail the illustrious man as he passed. The procession formed at the principal streets, when it reached the Burnett House.

Kossuth made his appearance in the balcony when Mayor Taylor welcomed him on behalf of the city, & stated that owing to the delicate state of Kossuth's health he was unable to speak, but would do so to-morrow if his strength permitted

ARRANGEMENTS FOR 1852.

AS the season for emigration approaches, we beg to acquaint our friends and the public with our Arrangements for the year 1852, and would inform them, that with an increase of business—for which we are grateful—we are placed in possession of greater facilities for conducting the Emigration and Foreign Exchange Business than any other House in the World, and for which—in a great measure—we have to thank a discerning public for their continued patronage.

Since the commencement of last year a large number of magnificent ships have been added to the various popular lines for which we are the Agents, and several others are now in course of construction, all of which will be fitted up for passengers in the most superior manner, and commanded by men of long experience.

By the following List of Packets, and their dates of sailing—being six regular packets a month to and from Liverpool—four, to and from London—and two, to and from Glasgow—persons sending for their friends, or those proceeding to the "Old Country," will perceive it much to their advantage to make arrangements at our office; and as heretofore, our business in Liverpool will be under the personal superintendence of our Mr. W. TAPSCOTT—whose well known care and attention to passengers embarking by our line has won for him his present high reputation among the emigrating public.

THE subscribers, thankful for past favors, beg leave to announce that they have recently added the FOUNDRY business to their former occupation of Mill stone manufacturing, and are now prepared to supply the public with articles in either branch, on terms that will defy competition.

In offering our Stoves to the community, we do so with the full assurance that we can supply better articles than can be purchased at any other place, being entirely new patterns, manufactured with care and from the very best material. The following list of patterns is offered with the confidence that they will give satisfaction in every particular, viz:

THE ECONOMIST
DOUBLE OVEN COOKING STOVE,

Possesses great advantages over every other stove, for plain cities and direct application of heat, being so arranged that one or both ovens can be used at pleasure. It will cook in half the time of any other stove now in use, and with half the fuel, not consuming over four cords of wood in one year.

The TRIUMPH, single oven, takes in long wood, is an excellent stove—one that has been well tested, and given general satisfaction.

The PREMIUM is different in its construction from any other made, in the arrangement of the fire back—acknowledged to be a great improvement.

The JUNO PARLOR is adapted to either wood or coal, being of neat style, the neatest arrangement ever offered to the public, having all the convenience of the stove contained with the handles of the open grate. It is beautifully ornamental, highly finished, and perfect in every respect—the fire from above and below the grate being opened or closed with three doors, and so arranged that when open they are completely out of sight. It is equally adapted to offices as well as parlors.

The RADIATOR is the best coal stove ever got up as a radiator of heat.

Persons purchasing their stoves of us in the event of any of the plates getting broke, can at all times be supplied with extra ones, thus superseding the necessity of throwing away stoves, which many are daily compelled to do in buying Eastern ware.

Those who are in want of an articles in our line, will find it to their advantage to give us a call, before purchasing elsewhere, as we are confident that we can give satisfaction in all cases. City references given, where our stoves can be seen in operation. Stoves delivered and set up in any part of the city, free of charge. All orders promptly attended to.
